

SOME ECHOES FROM THE ALABAMA PRESS ASSOCIATION

WHAT THE NEWSPAPER FOLKS ARE SAYING ABOUT DOTHAN AND THIS SECTION OF ALABAMA, MUCH PRAISE

Greenville Advocate.

The Alabama State Press Association met at Dothan on the 16th, making the thirty-eight gathering of the editors.

The meetings were held in the auditorium of the handsome court house. President J. C. Lawrence, of Union Springs, in the chair. The routine business was concluded the morning of the second day when the officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

President, C. G. Fennell, Guntersville.

Vice president, A. B. Kennedy, Montgomery.

Secretary, Jacob Pepperman, Montgomery.

Treasurer, Frank Crichton, Clanton.

Orator, R. C. Williams, Oothan.

Essayist, Mrs. R. E. L. Neil, Selma.

Poet, W. T. Hall, Dothan.

The delegates chosen to attend the National Editorial Association at next year's meeting were: Mrs. J. B. M. Rutherford, Eutaw; W. O. Brown, Edwardsville; C. W. Hare, Tuskegee; C. H. Greer, Marion; R. E. L. Neil, Selma; F. L. McKenzie, Tallahassee; E. W. Stanley, Greenville; E. B. McCarty, Demopolis; R. L. O'Neal, Huntsville; A. B. Tucker, Thomasville; O. Rutherford, Eutaw.

The striking feature of the program was an address delivered by Mr. C. P. J. Mooney, of the Memphis Commercial Appeal. That lecture alone was worth the trip to Dothan. Mr. Mooney is a brainy man and he is a practical newspaper man. He receives the highest salary of any editorial writer in the south, and after hearing him one can understand why his services are worth so much to a paper. There was solid food for thought in that address. There were practical suggestions and good advice and there was inspiration for every quill driver for greater effort in his work.

The editors and the members of their families who accompanied them were shown every courtesy by the citizens of Dothan. Carriage and automobile rides gave the visitors much pleasure as well as views of the city and surrounding country. A banquet the evening of the second day was an enjoyable function. The editorial party and citizens meeting in an evening of charming social intercourse.

Dothan.

It would be a hard matter to do justice to Dothan, the city of magical growth.

Sixteen miles from Florida on the south, eighteen miles from the Georgia line on the east, Dothan is the county seat of Houston, the youngest county in the state. In eleven years the population has grown from 347 to 10,000 people; the whites far outnumbering the colored population.

Three roads enter this metropolis of the Wiregrass, two more are projected, while an electric line will ere long run from Blackman in Dale county through Dothan to some point south of Marianna, Fla.

Elegant churches and schools, and many beautiful and substantial homes bespeak a splendid cultured citizenship.

A federal building is under construction at a cost of $100,000.

There are three up-to-date weekly newspapers and a splendidly edited daily. A paid fire department, electric lights, water works, and sanitary sewerage, free delivery mail service and telephone system, add to the safety and comfort of the citizens. Dothan has also a $60,000 court house, $100,000 cotton oil mill, $100,000 acid plant, two ice factories, seven whole-sale houses, three fertilizer factories, a large saw mill, three planing mills, variety works, two large compresses, four national banks, an infirmary, excellent hotels, two opera houses, foundry, machine shops, grist mill, cigar factory and mattress factory.

A fine farming country surrounds the city and for miles in every direction splendid crops are seen. The corn crop is practically made and cotton is waist high and blooming. It is claimed by the people of Houston county that they have never made a failure in crops, and from the outlook at the present time it would seem that it is a favored section.

In our next issue we will tell of the outing at Panama City, on St. Andrews Bay, Fla.

HOUSTON MUST PAY ON HENRY'S INDEBTEDNESS

DECISION RENDERED BY THE SUPREME COURT.

Montgomery, July 1.—Houston county must pay a portion of Henry county's indebtedness, according to the supreme court, by its opinion rendered yesterday, though Houston county has fought since its formation in 1901, such a decision.

When Henry county was divided, and a portion of it became Houston county, by the authorization of the constitutional convention 1901, there was $14,000 and more in the treasury, and an indebtedness of $10,000, chalked up against its credit.

Henry county commissioners figured that the pro rata share of the debt, to be borne by Houston county in accordance with its tax valuations was $6,630.43, and demanded that it be paid, Houston county, however, assumed the position that, as the money in the treasury of Henry at the time of severance, was greater than the indebtedness, there should be no call on Houston for aid in the paying of the bills of Henry.

But, after all the litigation, it was held that Houston is liable, and that the six thousand odd dollars of the debt must be paid.

THAT ST. JO EXCURSION.

Several did not go on the trip to St. Jo thinking that they would be crowded out. And there's where they made a mistake, there were just enough people to make the trip pleasant. Those who did go had the best time at all, the trip on the steamer Manteo being especially enjoyable. General Manager Beauprie is thinking of running another excursion to St. Jo to give those who did not go an opportunity to take this delightful trip. The date has not been determined.

A large crowd went to Panama last Sunday but there was plenty of room for all. The Sunday special will leave at 5:30 Sunday morning, as usual. If you have not taken advantage of the low rates to visit the coast you have missed a whole lot.

IN HONOR OF MISS JENKINS.

Yesterday evening, from 9 until 11, Miss Ioline Brown entertained a number of her friends in honor of Miss Mary Jenkins of Fort Gaines.

The guests spent a most pleasant evening playing progressive dominoes and enjoyed a delicious menu of cream and champagne wafers.

Those present were Miss Mary Jenkins, Misses Marie Harris, Louise Florence, Robbie Hayes, Marion Florence, Marie Clendinen, Hattie Mae Sellers, Lillie Howell, Susie Mae Brown and Ioline Brown; Messrs. O. R. Berryman, C. P. Simonton, Leslie Smart, Dr. W. C. Howell, J. Lisenby, J. V. Harrison, Marvin Harrison, Dr. R. L. Ward, Lynn Kirkland and M. F. Smith.

COMMANDERY MEETING TONIGHT.

Dothan commandery is to have a regular business meeting tonight. All Sir Knights are requested to be there promptly at 8 o'clock.

NEW COTTON FIRM TO ENTER DOTHAN MARKET

J. L. JORDAN WILL BE THE LOCAL MANAGER.

Messrs. Marks and Gayle, cotton buyers and exporters of Montgomery, will open an agency in Dothan the coming season. Marks and Gayle are one of, if not the oldest cotton firm in Montgomery, having been in the business there about forty years. Besides having their own representatives abroad and in the mill centers of the United States and Canada, they control the business of Gen. H. McFadden and Bro. of Philadelphia, the largest cotton firm in the world, for middle and southern Alabama and Western Florida.

Mr. J. L. Jordan will be manager of their Dothan agency.

BOTH GOT SICK.

General Manager Beauprie, and Conductor Darnell, were very busy the other day trying to make their passengers comfortable on the St. Jo excursion. When they got on the Manteo, they gave minute instructions as to how to keep from being sick. They followed up the crowd to advise, till they both found it necessary to separate. One hung over one side of the boat, and the other took the off side. Both were busy looking into the water, and contributing something to the fishes. It is said that Darnell had to be carried through his train on a litter to take up the tickets on the return trip, while Mr. Beauprie turned white around the lips every time he looks at water.

ABOUT THE ST. JO TRIP.

Compass Lake, Fla., July 1.—The 30th of June will always be a green spot in the memory of the little party who left here to visit Old St. Jo Island. The train came in on time and everything was in fine shape. As we stepped aboard the train of the A. and St. A. B. Ry, we were greeted by Messrs. Purvis, Beauprie and McClellan, officials of the road, who looked splendid in their white outing suits, doing everything possible to make everyone have a good time, which they fully succeeded in doing. I will say just here that the A. and St. A. B. railway could not have selected three men more fitted to fill the positions these men hold than they are. They work for the interest of the road and the people, and the road is improving every day. When the train drew up at Panama, the steamer Manteo, owned by the A. and St. A. B. railroad, was anchored along side to take the passengers over to St. Jo. She was well decked with beautiful ladies and handsome men, reminding one of spring flowers. We went out by St. Andrews, taking on more passengers and as we steamed out from shore the band struck the familiar "Dixie Land." Of course this caused quite a yell. The band who furnished the music for the occasion was from Goshen, Ala. They gave us good music, which added much to the pleasure of the trip. When we had made about half of the trip over in the gulf waters they were so full of frolic and fun that they soon had our beautiful "Spring Flowers" drooping and hanging their heads, as tho' they had been plucked and left in the sun. Their Dothan, where is Dothan? We read a great deal in regard to Dothan in the state papers.—Head land Post.

Ah, quit your kiddin'. Dothan is the place to come for things you don't keep at home. It is the place to sell what you have to sell what you have for market at a higher price. It is the place where there is no town row; no school divisions; no church fight. It is the place to come to take the train when you want to go anywhere—it is the Hub of the Wire-grass, the center of activity.

THINK WE ARE RIGHT.

The Home Journal is inclined to believe that what we said about numbering the houses was warmed over article, suggested by some one else, and not our sentiments. We are asked to name as many as three cities that commenced numbering at 100 instead of 1. Well, we are not acquainted with city ways, but we really believe that Birmingham and Montgomery both number their houses by the same plan that we have adopted. Don't know about Mobile, Selma, Decatur, Anniston, Atlanta, Macon, Savannah but on a show down believe that all of them would show about the same system of numbering. The Journal doubts that one could go to a city and find a certain house by this system as quickly as if they were numbered, beginning at one.

Well, if you buy a load of stove wood from a man, and tell him to take it to 535 West Main, you can easily tell him it is the 35th house in fifth block from town. He can count the blocks. The old way, you might say take this street and follow it till you come to 535, but he wouldn't know how far to follow it, whether one block, or ten miles. He would of course know where to stop when he got there, but he would have no idea of how far it was before he started. The first figure, of course, stands for the number of the block from starting point, and the other two, or more figures, stand for the number of the house.

We are really surprised at the Journal. We had the other system of numbering, beginning at one, and if that had been the best there would have been no necessity of a change. The present system is one of the simplest and easiest understood that is in use, from a point of directing a stranger to a certain place. Show him the street, tell him how many blocks, and the number of the house is easy. Or, if he has the house number, he will know how many blocks of course, and you only put him on the right street.

DRASTIC SANITARY LAWS.

When the sanitary sewerage system was put in seven years ago at great expense to the management, everybody said it would be a good thing, if everybody would connect with it. The city fathers thought they knew a way, and straightway went to the attorneys for the town. An instrument of writing was drawn up, which, when passed by the mayor and council, was to be a law forcing folks who had property in reach of the sewer mains to put in sanitary closets. Lots of folks were just itching for a chance to do that anyway; others itched, but couldn't scratch up the money. The ordinance was passed, and published, and the public was threatened with much trouble if it didn't go ahead and deal with the plumbers. After awhile that council was succeeded by another, keen to make a personal record for doing things, and this council had the old ordinance dug up and republished, and the public was like many others, and it stay in again intimidated. This council, like many others, couldn't stay in always, when new fathers were wanting to manage the city. On and on it has gone, each one going into great details howing where plenty of law was available to make property owners plunk out the money for making the necessary plumbing, if the owner didn't.

Here a few weeks ago, those who still hadn't put in sanitary closets, were scared till they were white in the face, by another clause, backed by all the air of authority, even digging up all former proclamations on the matter to bear witness that the law was right along sanitary lines. The plumbers had such a rush in work till you could scarcely get one to put a washer on the hydrant or solder a leaky joint. They were digging ditches all over town, and the man-afraid-of-the-law spent sleepless night (to say nothing of the money) wondering if he would get in his plumbing before a policeman came around for him. Property owners and tenants alike, were served with most legal looking notices, telling just how to proceed if the ordinance was not obeyed in the fullest sense of the word. Those who knew no way out of it, went ahead and obeyed the law.

This law, possibly, was meant to apply in the business district of town more so than in the residential section, but nothing was done down town about it, so to speak. There are business houses in town yet, big ones, too, who haven't even a water hydrant in their house, nor even on the premises, much less a sanitary closet. They haven't been frightened into obeying the rulings of the council, and don't look like they are expecting to.

This is evidently the last call, and we contemplate seeing a town crew of plumbers going about putting in closets, charging them up to the property owners, or seeing some of them on the streets with shackles.

We know we have the law, we know the law must be followed to the letter. It is on the books, and a good one or a bad one.

Just what the outcome will be we hate to guess, but we want to see. We promise to tell it to the public for we know the public is always interested in such improvements.

GIVE IT A TEST.

For several years, that is, ever since the town has had sanitary sewerage, the town authorities have been sending out warnings about making the people connect with the sewer. Certain ordinances have been passed, and repassed, but only a few have been frightened into making the connection, unless they were about ready to do it of their own accord. Usually, those who went to the expense of putting in the sewer connection after receiving the warnings, were people who could least afford it, or thought so.

The last call, looked like some body was going to be hauled into court. Legal looking papers were served on the property owner, and the tenant, but if anything worse has been done we haven't heard from it.

This made belief him worked long enough. Personally we don't care about it, but if there is a law whereby those who own property adjoining the sewer mains are forced to connect with it, that law ought to be put to the test. It isn't right to frighten the man who is afraid of the law, into doing something that the other property owners won't do.

There are business houses down town who haven't water in their buildings, much less sanitary connections, and the owners refuse to be bluffed into putting it in.

That law ought to be wiped off, or it ought to be put into effect. Let it apply to all.

PESSI MIST

Yesterday we said that the every day clothes of the Optimist or the good, was disinterested work in the interest of others, sweet spirit, gentility, good humor. Today that the every day clothes of the pessimist, or bad, is that all lightnings are dangerous that every thunderstorm is a hurricane, that the conditions of our Government are foul, and not adjusted to the great majority, that the social world as a whole is afflicted with that which is unhealthy, that christianity itself provides less than it gives. Many who have joined themselves to this idea have been the beneficiaries of the highest forms of civilization. To them has been given that for which they have not proved themselves worthy of the conditions under which they have lived. They have chosen to remain idle while the world in commerce, religion and civics has marched on and will continue to march while they remain idle and disappointed.

It is the truth that the good as well as the bad have digestion, for this we guarantee HOLLAN'S DYSPEPTIC ELIXIR. For sore eyes, we do the same to: HOLLAN'S EYE WATER. Now to the optimist and pessimist, we say to all alike, that our money, time and life work is behind the preparations that we offer you. They supplant remedial preparations on account of arrangement of formulae that come from the East or West. If you are not satisfied write the price of medicines bearing our name, we will always be glad to refund the money. If you have the ailment we have the remedy.

MEN PAST FIFTY IN DANGER

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially of enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." N. H. McCallum.
